Edito

This season Roche Bobois writes a new chapter in a story that continues to express a contemporary vision of French art de vivre by presenting a considered, balanced selection of new designs and original reinterpretations.

In terms of new releases, Franco-Chinese artist Jiang Qiong Er designed Bamboo Mood – a modern iteration of the traditional Chinese lounge, characterized by graceful lines and a poetic atmosphere that prompt a state of meditative bliss.

In terms of reinterpretations, the Pulp table by Eugeni Quitllet is updated in a new Carrara marble version for a sculptural aesthetic.

All these designs and all this talent are currently on display in our showrooms, where we hope to see you soon, and at roche-bobois.com.

PARIS

To design this collection, Franco-Chinese artist Jiang Qiong Er was inspired by bamboo a powerful symbol in Chinese culture. With Bamboo Mood, she reinterprets these values with a poetic spin – an approach that breaks with convention while also exuding elegance.
