Edito

This season Roche Bobois writes a new chapter in a story that continues to express a contemporary vision of French art de vivre by presenting a considered, balanced selection of new designs and original reinterpretations.

A highlight of the new releases, Bamboo Mood designed by Franco-Chinese artist Jiang Qiong Er is a modern iteration of the traditional Chinese lounge, characterized by graceful lines and a poetic atmosphere that prompt a state of meditative bliss.

Featured among the reinterpretations, the Pulp table designed by Eugeni Quitllet is unveiled in a new Carrara marble version that adds a sculptural dimension to this signature piece.

Come and explore the full range of designs and extraordinary talent making up this collection, both in our showrooms and at roche-bobois.com.

To design this collection, Franco-Chinese artist Jiang Qiong Er was inspired by bamboo, a powerful symbol in Chinese culture. With Bamboo Mood seats, furniture and accessories, she reinterprets these values with a poetic spin – an approach that breaks with convention while also exuding elegance.
